NEWS GATHERED FROM THE COUNTY

Interesting Notes Picked Up By Hustling Reporters in the Country Districts.

COLMA NOTES

W. C. Reardon, of Madera, has been a visitor here with his father, C. F. Reardon

Frank, the little son of Lewis Reg(l, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is reported as improving.

The Ssecond annual ball of El Carmello Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will be held Saturday evening at Colma Hall.

Republicans of this section are rejoicing over the nomination of E. C. Johnson, of Vista Grande, for Justice of the Peace. This insures the location of the office in this neighborhood instead of South San Francisco.

SAN BRUNO NOTES

Mrs. George Hatfield has gone to Sacramento for a short visit with her husband, who is employed there at present.

The funeral of Rinaldo Delosso, the young man who was killed by the "Lark" train, was held on Tuesday of last week under the direction of the members of the Young Men's Institute, of which he was a popular member. Sevrices were held at the San Bruno Catholic Church, where high mass was celebrated by Father Grant.

The funeral of Mrs. Amanda Ellsworth, wife of J. E. Ellsworth, was held last Friday, the remains being interred at Mountain View cemetery, Oakland. While Mrs. Ellsworth had been in poor health for some time, it was not generally expected that she was in serious danger, and her death came rather unexpected.

SAN MATEO

The school trustees of San Mateo school district are considering a plan for the issuance of bonds to the amount of $75,000 for the erection of a new school building, the completion of the Lawrence school building and the purchasing of three additional sites. Before placing the proposal before the people, the trustees will of necessity be forced to determine in some manner whether it is the intention of the three towns---San Mateo, Burlingame and Hillsborough---to continue indefinitely to remain unitedly as one school district as they have in the past. It is their intention to secure some sort of a general answer to this question as soon as possible.

The indications now are that there will soon be a material improvement in the water supply. The first of the new wells for the Water Company has been completed and the water is pronounced as good, the well is 174 feet deep and seems to be in a gravel strata.

Pleading ignorance of the law, H. Sudaya and T. Aoyazi, two Japanese who conduct the Yokohama laundry at San Mateo, confessed to Deputy Coroner Snider that they had buried the daughter of Sudaya in the rear of the establishment. The child died some days ago. No arrests were made but Coroner Plymire will order an examination tomorrow and probably an autopsy will be performed. The men said the child had been sick for some time and had died without the attendance of a physician.

Shoe Dealer "Hikes Out."

The disapearance of F. C. Bomberg, the shoe dealer, which was at first denied, though found:d on persistent rumor, has been confirmed by his family. Mr. Bomberg was last seen in Redwood City three weeks ago when one morning he departed for San Francisco as was his daily custom, and has not been seen since, and no tidings have been come from him except a short letter advising his wife to do what she could with his stock of goods.

Mrs. Bomberg says her husband was discouraged because business was not as good as usual although he was doing very well. She has since been taking care of the store, but having satisfied herself that her husband intended to prolong his absence indefinitely she notified the San Francisco Board of Trade which body sent a representative down to take charge of the stock for the creditors. The stock was sold in San Francisco yesterday afternoon.

JUDGE DOOLING FILES DECISION

Conclusions from Which Opinion is Found that Loren Coburn Is Mentally Weak

The following is the full text of the opinion handed down last week by Judge Dooling in the Loren Coburn incompetency case:

The hearing of this matter consumed many days, and resulted in the presentation of a vast amount of testimony and a great number of exhibits. An analysis of all this testimony would serve no purpose, and I shall content myself with a brief statement of the legal propositions involved, as I understand them, and of the facts as they present themselves to me. The proceeding is one in which it is desired to have appointed a guardian of the person and estate of Loren Coburn, an aged and wealthy resident of this county. The matter was once tried in this court, and a judgment declaring respondent incompetent was entered herein, which judgment, upon appeal, was reversed. The present hearing is in consequence of such reversal.

Proceedings of this character are inaugurated under Sec. 1763 C. C. P. by the verified petition of any relative or friend representing to the court, or a judge thereof, that any person "is insane, or from any cause mentally incompetent to manage his property." Upon the filing of such petition a notice is given to the supposed insane or incompetent person, and upon this petition and notice a hearing is had, and if, after a full hearing and examination upon "such petition, it appear to the court "that the person in question is in"capable of taking care of himself and "managing his property, such court "must appoint a guardian of his per"son and estate, with the powers and "duties in the code provided." (Sec. 1764 C. C. P.)

It is strongly urged by respondent's counsel that under this provision the court is powerless to appoint a guardian, unless the respondent be physically decrepit, and that however weak mentally a respondent may be, however mentally incompetent to manage his property, if he still possess physical vigor and can care for himself, that fact is determinative of the whole proceeding, and a guardian may not be appointed. With this view of the statutes I am unable to agree. The proceedings are directed at mental incompetency, and their primary object is the preservation of property, and if the finding of "incapability of taking care of himself" is an essential prerequisite to the appointment of a guardian under Sec. 1764 I am of the opinion that such finding must result from the determination that the person is "insane, or from any cause incompe"tent to manage his property," as an averment of these facts is all that is required to set proceedings of this character in motion. It cannot be intended that the estate of one mentally incompetent to manage his property may by him be dissipated without his knowing the effect of his acts, and that such dissipation may not be prevented by the appointment of a guardian, so long as he is able to care for his own person.

In the case at bar the respondent cannot be held to be insane. The testimony of Dr. Robertson, an expert alienist with ample opportunity to observe, is to me conclusive upon that point. Dr. Lustig, another expert alienist, saw no more of respondent than I did myself, and while he testifies positively that respondent is suffering from senile dementia, yet in view of the wider opportunities for observation enjoyed by Dr. Robertson, I am inclined to accept his diagnosis, although respondent when on the stand exhibited some characteristics usually found in senile dements. But while not insane, I believe respondent to be from another cause, that is to say, from the weakness of mind and memory consequent to old age, and which be manifested upon the witness stand when asked concerning matters of the utmost importance to himself, "mentally incompetent to manage his property." The fact that before the inauguration of these proceedings he signed various deeds and leases, with which all connected with this cause are familiar, might not be of so much importance if respondent could explain in any way why he did so. But he cannot; and upon this hearing, although they were the real basis of the proceedings against him, he had but a hazy recollection of ever having seen or heard of them before. Counsel urges that he was tricked by a trusted agent; but this is the explanation offered by counsel and not by respondent; and if one trusted agent can procure the signing by respondent of papers of this character, and, about which even when called specifically to his attention, he has no knowledge, and concerning the execution of which he has no recollection, it is not unlikely that, another person securing his confidence could do the same. It is a serious circumstance that of all the documents signed by him, he can recall and explain only one, the lease of Dr. Banks, for which he received five dollars in payment of the first year's rent. As for the presnt necessity for the appointment of a guardian, it may not be found, if for no other reason, in the fact that his present wife holds the record title to over five hundred acres of valuable land belonging to him, which land is worth more than $50,000.00, and which he believes, unless reminded to the contrary, is still a part of the land to which he holds the title, and upon which he pays the taxes, and the further fact that she will continue to hold it so long as the present condition of affairs endures.

I know that counsel urges that as the lady is now the wife of respondent, this condition of affairs is a matter of indifference, but in this view I cannot concur. The significent fact is the fact that he thinks he has the title to the property, when he has not, and the fact that when reminded of the real state of affairs he does not retain them in mind, but believes that he received a deed from his grantee years ago.

I am not at all unmindful of the importance to respondent of this proceeding, and yet the only hesitancy I feel in directing the judgment to be entered herein, which I believe should be entered, arises from my observation of the unbounded confidence of respondent's counsel in the justice of his cause, a confidence which I have neither the power nor the wish to disturb.

The prayer of the petition will be granted.

M. T. DOOLING,
Acting Judge of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of San Mateo.

Gussie Mullen has returned to Mont Rio where he is engaged in the management of the hotel conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carr. The Carrs will shortly have their own hotel which is now being erected for them. Mont Rio is one of the popular California resorts.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

The remarkable canvass made by James E. Fitzgerald during the recent campaign has caused the politicians to sit up and take notice. His defeat is only temporary, for a young man of his fine ability and genial way is sure to meet with success in the political arena. A purer or better young man never aspired for office in San Mateo County.

Anyone who tries to secure an office by besmirching the character of his opponents is certain to fail. Others have tried it in times past and went ingloriously to defeat. The game of politics, as in all other things, must be played fair if the players want to be successful. The young man who resorted to this unfair method in the campaign just closed is perhaps beginning to find this out, when mayhap it is too late.

Sale Public Spirit.

While the business men of Redwood City are conservative in their methods, the prompt response with which the appeal for funds for the securing of a location for the shoe factory indicates thhat there is no lack of public spirit. Once assured that a proposal of this character is to be handled in a business like manner, there is no question as to the securing of the necessary funds.

In the present case there is no question as to the absolute certainty of the investment. The character of the men at the head of the enterprise is an assurance that every business guarantee will be exacted and this before the money is actually called for. That the amount needed to secure for Redwood City this valuable addition to its manufacturing enterprises will be secured within theh next few weeks is now a certainty.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Hennessy, 216 Grant Building, San Francisco, California, which said office the undersigned selects as his place of business in all matters connected with said estate of Catherine Finnegan deceased.

JOHN FINNEGAN,
Administrator of the estate of Catherine Finnegan, deceased.

Dated Redwood City Aug. 25, 1910.

REMINISCENSES OF PIONEER DAYS

Gleanings From the Records Left by the Men Who Laid the Foundation of San Mateo County Institutions

Although the people of San Mateo county had twice determined at the polls since the organization of the County that Redwood City was their choice as the place for the location of the county seat, the people of the town of San Mateo seemed determined that they would not give up their attempt to force a change upon the people without a struggle, and within a few months after the last election for this purpose they set about an attempt to have their proposition resubmitted, regardless of either the spoken will of the people or of the serious expense to which the county would be put. And all this in spite of the fact that the intent of the law seems to have been that elections for the removal of the county seat should not be held within three years of the determination of the question. Apparently to a large extent at least their hopes for a successful outcome of their designs lay in the fact that of the five members of the board of Supervisors three could be induced to favor them in the scheme. That they had secured this supportt seems to be evidenced by the fact that shortly before this last move was made public the Supervisors had redistricted the county election precincts, throwing out two precincts which at the past election had been strongly in favor of RedwoodCity and so arranging matters that the voters of these precincts if they desired to express their choice would be compelled to travel a long distance to cast their votes. At the same time a new precinct was formed in the northern end of the county which would be decidedly favorable to the Sans Mateo advocates.

Relying upon these improved chances and the friendship of three pliable members of the Board of Supervisors, in the latter part of April, 1874, the people of San Mateo started another petition to the Supervisors demanding a call for an election to determine the location of the county seat. Men were hired to circulate this petition and at the meeting of the Supervisors on the 4th of May a document purporting to be a petition for this purpose and having attached to it some 540 names, or more than the number legally required was presented. It appears that in presenting the petition the clerk of the Board simply read the heading of the petition and made no attempt to read the names attached and that no effort was made at the meeting to determine either the exact number of names or the authenticity of the list. As soon as the petition had been read a resolution, evidently prepared in advance, was presented ordering that an election be held on the 13th of June. This resolution was adopted by the votes of Supervisors Steele, Ames and Green. Following its adoption Supervisors Brittan and Kelley presented and forced an entry upon the minutes of the Board of a protest against the action upon the grounds that the order was without the sanction of the law and in excess of the powers of the Board.

Although the action of the people of San Mateo in presenting the petition at this time had taken the friends of Redwood City unawares, they were not long in formulating a plan of action and determining to appeal to the courts as a last resort to preserve their rights in the matter. As a means of obtaining a final decision without vexatious delays it was decided to take the matter directly before the Supreme Court, and for this purpose F. D. Atherton as a citizen of the county, through attorneys Campbell, Fox and Campbell, presented to that Court a petition for a writ of review. In the petition for the writ of review, which was a rather lengthy document, it was set forth as the salient points the facts that an election had been held for the purpose of determining the same question on the 9th of the previous December which had been in all respects conducted as required by law. That of course less than three years had elapsed since the holding of this election. That the petition presented to the Supervisors on the 4th of May had never been verified or proven nor examined by any member of the Board, and that the petition did not bear the genuine and legal signatures of sufficient number of legal voters to comply with the requirements of law. Upon the filing of this petition an order was made by the Supreme Court directing the Board of Supeervisors to certify to the Court all proceedings regarding the election held on the 9th December, 1873, and also the proceedings taken in the issuance of the last call for the election upon which the writ was based. The hearing of the matter was fixed for the 25th day of May and all further proceedings for the election stopped until the rendering of the decision of the Court. This order was served on the Supervisors at their meeting on May 1th. On the date set the matter was heard in the Supreme Court, the adherents of San Mateo and the legal representatives of the majority element of the Board of Supervisors admitting all the allegations of fact as to the holding of the previous election and resting upon the contention that the law did not prohibit the holding of a second election within three years where the election had not resulted in an actual change of the location of the county seat. The case was ably presented in behalf of the RedwoodCity contention by Charles N. Fox in a lengthy argument and was taken under advisement by the court, which on the 30th of May rendered a decision against the people of this city and sustaining the claim of a legal right to hold the election if properly called for at any time. This effect ually removed the chance of a prohibition of the holding of the election and the active work of another campaign was taken up.

This however did not end the legal fight, for evidently from the inception of the plan for the second election contest the people of RedwoodCity felt convinced that matters were so framed that it would be almost impossible for them to again win at the polls. Not only, apparently, did they feel that the county had been jerrymandered against them by a hostile Board of Supervisors, but it was openly intimated that unfair and improper methods might be resorted to to insure the carrying of the election in favor of San Mateo. After some consultation it was resolved to attack the legality of the petition for the election in the Courts, both as to the manner of the presentation and form of the petition and as to the genuineness of the signatures to the petition and the manner in which they had been secured. Following this determination C. N. Fox sued out a writ of prohibition against the Board of Supervisors in the District Court based upon allegations along these lines. When this was served upon the Supervisors the majority of members of the board authorized their chairman to secure "the best counsel in the state" to oppose the matter in the courts and upon this order H. H Haight, the leading lawyer of his day, was employed at the expense of the county. Mr. Haight soon appeared before Judge Sharpstein of the District Court with a motion to dismiss the writ on the ground that the matter had been adjudicated by the Supreme Court and should not be heard in any phase by an inferior court. Mr. Fox was not to be ruled out in this manner, however, and he "came back" in the Supreme Court with a petition for a rehearing. When this came up for hearing, Mr. Barnes attempted to have the writ again dismissed on the grounds that the writ of prohibition was not the proper remedy; that the former decision of the Court had settled the matter for all time; that the dismissal of the writ by Judge Sharpstein was a bar to further proceedings, and that the action should have been brought in the name of the people instead of an individual citizen as such. Upon the first three of these points the Court held in favor of the contentions of Mr. Fox for the people of Redwood City, but was inclined to sustain the last objection of Mr. Barnes.

Queer Life In Johannesburg.

Here is an amusing description of queer life in a Johannesburg residential block: "Nearly every one has one room, and into this you cram nearly all your worldly possessions and learn all kinds of vanishing tricks and juggling feats, such as having a combination bed and piano, using your washing stand for your writing table and converting your hip bath by day with rugs and cushions into an armchair. In this abode of bliss you receive your friends, male and female, and, if the gentleman, sitting himself rashly on the bed-sofa, vanishes into the piano or the lady throws herself wearily into the hip bath armchair and it falls off the packing case with her inside it, no one will turn a hair. You will invite them to lunch or tea or dinner, which ever is approaching, and the gentleman will offer to go and buy chops or kippers and fetch the milk and when he returns will help you cook, and you'll sit together and eat it on the washing stand, which also does duty as a dinner table on such occasions."—London Standard.

The Chief Justice.

"There are very few people who know the proper designation of the man who presides over the supreme court," said the secretary of the senate.

"Generally he is referred to as the chief justice of the United States supreme court. In fact, he is the chief justice. That's his official title. Most of our presidents in nominating men for this office have fallen into the error of giving him the long title. When George Washington nominated Oliver Ellsworth of Connecticut for this post he described it as chief justice of the supreme court of the United States. Andrew Jackson made the same error in nominating Richard B. Taney. So did Abraham Lincoln when he appointed Salmon P. Chase. Grover Cleveland was the first president to give the correct designation. When he appointed Melville W. Fuller he nominated him to be chief justice and nothing else. Future nominations will be framed in this fashion."—Washington Star.

Fifty Dollar Dinners.

"Dinners at $50 a plate are as common in New York as five dollar dinners are in London and Paris," said a chef. "Our extravagant dinners are no better than the cheaper foreign ones. Their cost is caused not by the exquisite cooking of exquisite materials, but by the use of exotic foods whose expense is their chief recommendation. What do I mean by exotic foods? Well, I mean cane sugar instead of the ordinary beet root kind for the compote; I mean wild rice instead of the cultivated for the canvasback; I mean sole brought alive from England and sterlet from Russia, when our own native fish is better conditioned; I mean hothouse strawberries as big as apples, pears as big as cocoanuts and grapes as big as peaches, all tasting rather like raw pumpkin, but looking very fine in blizzard weather. Foolish foods; but, then, it's only foolish people who eat fifty dollar dinners."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Auctioneer's Hourglass.

An auctioneer of Philadelphia collects all sorts of objects pertaining to his ancient calling. He has, among other things, an interesting set of auctioneers' hourglasses. The auctioneer a century or so ago concluded a sale not by saying "Going, going, gone!" and rapping the counter with his hammer, but it was his better method to turn up a free running glass toward the end of the bidding and to end the sale irrevocably when the sand ran out. This saved confusion and dispute. The auctioneers' glasses in the Philadelphia collection are picturesque. One is of tortoise shell and mother-of-pearl. Another is of amber and gold. A third is of teak and ivory.

Appropriate.

A clergyman went to have his teeth fixed by a dentist. When the work was done the dentist declined to accept more than a nominal fee. The parson, in return for this favor, insisted later on the dentist accepting a volume of the reverend gentleman's own writing. It was a disquisition on the Psalms, and on the fly leaf he had inscribed this appropriate quotation: "And my mouth shall show forth thy praise."—Harper's Weekly.

Gave Him a Pointer.

George Ade was once stranded in a small town. He went into the barber's shop to get shaved and endured even unto the end. When the barber had completed his operation the humorist arose and, putting a handkerchief to his face, said gravely:

"Sir, you have missed your vocation. You ought to be an oyster opener."

Never Gives Up.

"I just had to marry him. He told me he never gave up anything he loved."

"Well, it's good to have a husband who loves one."

"Y-e-s, but I have learned that he loves money also."—Houston Post.

An Impediment.

"It looks as though my marriage with Miss Mullins would have to be postponed."

"What's the matter, old fellow?"

"She got married to young Dobson yesterday."

Sea Air.

At a meeting of the French Therapeutical society M. Laumonier showed that the therapeutic effect of sea air on the coast is quite different from that of the open sea—i. e., twenty or thirty miles out. On the coast the effect tends toward excitement and congestion and, moreover, is irregular in its action. Out at sea it is tonic and regulating, and in addition the patient gets quiet, a regular life and a continuous bath of pure air. These advantages are not so patent on board great liners on account of the vibration and the smell from the engines, but on a sailing ship they are evident.

HE WAS MISTAKEN.

The Young Army Officer Was Not a Coward After All.

At the battle of Santiago a surgeon going to the front came upon a young officer sitting beside the road trembling like a leaf and whiter than the dead men around him. At sight of the surgeon he began to talk.

"I'm a coward. I'm a coward. I'm a coward," he said. "I knew I'd run, and I did. O Lord, I wish you'd kill me! I'm disgraced forever. I just got scared. I knew I would. I was going along all right, not thinking of anything but getting at the dashed Spaniards, yelling at my men to come on and running ahead as fast as I could, when all of a sudden I stubbed my toe or something, and then I can't remember being scared, but I must have been, for I came galloping back here sick as a dog. Oh, I feel so awfully gone! I'm a blanked coward, and I wish I was dead. O Lord, why doesn't somebody shoot me? I've got such an awful goneness right here." And he put his hand to his stomach. The surgeon gave him a quick look and caught him as he plunged forward in a faint. Where the awful goneness was a Mauser bullet had found its billet. They carried the wounded man to the field hospital, and he chuckled all the way.

"Oh, my! Oh, my!" he said over and over. "I wasn't scared! I wasn't scared!" And then he would laugh delightedly. "I wasn't scared! I was hit! I was just hit! I ain't a coward after all!"—Washington Post.

Chinese Idea of Government.

Here is a Chinese idea of prosperity in a nation: When the sword is rusty, the plow bright, the prisons empty, the granaries full, the steps of the temple worn down and those of the law courts grass grown, when doctors go afoot, the bakers on horseback and the men of letters drive in their own carriages, then the empire is well governed.

About three years ago they were first used in our family, when we lived in Buffalo, N. Y. Their use in my case brought prompt and positive relief from pain and lameness in the back and other distressing difficulties due to weak kidneys. To say the least, the results were gratifying. Another person in our household who suffered from backache found Doan's Kidney Pills very effective and has used them off and on since then with good results."

COUNCIL DISCUSSES FINANCIAL PROBLEM

Trustees Fail in Effort to Make Desired Reduction in the Annual Tav Levy.

There is to be no lowering of the city tax rate for the coming year. This was the practical decision of the members of the C.ty Council at the adjourned meeting of last Monday night, at which all of the Trustees with the exception of Trustee Beeger were present. Not that the Trustees were not desirous of a lower rate, but that after a thorough discussion of the needs of the city it was deemed unsafe to curtail its financial resources. It had been hoped that for the sake of reputation among inquirers for investments the rate for the year might be lowered without a material decrease in the actual income by means of an increase in the assessment roll, but it was soon apparent that the expected increase along this line had not materialized.

The discussion of this important subject was the chief reason for the holding n of the session and much time was devoted to the subject. Trustee Hynding was the first of the Trustees to voice an opposition to thesuggestion of a reduction in the rate, contending that it would be unwise to place the city funds in a condition that would require niggardly economy and pointing out some of the urgent demands for improvement, such as the installation of the fire alarm system, the repair of streets and bridges and the importance of being able to care for the numerous contingencies that might arrise. Trustee Brown expressed an approval of these sentiments and expressed the opinion that neglect of needed improvements would do more harm than could be overcome by the vcoveted reputation of a slightly lower rate. While Trustee Merrill was anxious that the levy should show a reduction, or at least that the total should not show an increase, he admitted the force of the arguments presented and made no particular objection. Both City Treasurer Towne and City Attorney Mansfield were present with reports of the expenditures of the past year and estimates of the requirements of the coming year, as will as carefully prepared estimates of the possible income of the city from sources other than taxation. All of these plainly indicated that it would be impossible to conduct the business of the city upon a less income from tax rates than that of the past year, and that this fact would not permit of a reduction in the tax for the general fund. At the same time it was plainly apparent that the recent bond issue would necessitate a slight increase in the rate to meet the demands for the payment of interest and principal. From th se statements it was made apparent that however much the city had gained from a moral point of view by the reduction in the number of saloons it had suffered financially, the income from licenses having b en reduced about $2500.

From theh estimates furnished it was shown that to meet the interest and payments falling due during the year on the outstanding bonds of the city would require $15,028.14. To maintain the present efficiency of the public library would require $1,122,72. Outside of the estimated incomes from all other source it would be necessary to raise by taxation for the general fund at least $8,638.38. This shows a total of $24,889.24 to be secured from the tax levy. After this decision had been reachhed an ordinance was presented by City Attorney Mansfield fixing these figures as the estimated budget required for the coming year and was given its first reading. While the tax rate was not actually fixed at this meeting, it is evident that the rate per $100 will be $1.53 in what is known as the new portion of the city and $3.04 in the old portion.

During the discussion, Geo. W. Lovie, who was present among the spectators, offered a strong argument gagainst the suggestion that the assessed valuation of property in the city limitsi should not be materially increased. He stated that he had occasion recently to make investigation and found that the valuation in this city was on a par with that of neighboring municipalities, and suggested t hat any increase would eventually result in an injustice to the taxpayer, as while it might result in the reduction of the city tax rate, it would be practically certain to eventually result in an increase in the county and state tax, as if the assessment is increased for city purposes the State Board of Equalization would insist that the same increase be made for state and county taxation.

Fire Chief J. N. Winter and first assistant J. P Coleman were authorized to attend the convention of Pacific Coast fire chiefs to be held at Stockton in September.

An application of the Veteran Firemen's Association for permission to take the old hand engine belonging to the fire department to San Francisco for use by them in the parade of the Native Sons celebration of Admission Day was granted. During the consideration of the request it was stated that this old engine, which is probably the only relic of the pioneer fire fighting apparatus in the state, is still in good condition and could be effective ly used at any time.

Hess, McGarvey and GKreiss gave notice that they had completed the macadamizing of certain streets in district No. 13, and asked that the work be accepted. u Hearing on the petition was set for the next regular meeting, September 6th.

H. C. Tuchsen, C. G Landscheit and Geo. W. Lovie, the committee appointed to appraise the value of property required for the extension of Phelps street, submitted a report of a reappraisement of the Robertson property placing the value of the land at $1000. The report was accepted and filed.

The ordinance prepared by the Board of Health providing general sanitary regulations for the city was adopted.

Arrangements for the transfer to the city of the poles and lines of the reconstructed municipal lighting plant were completed. Chairman Merrill presented the deeds from the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. to the city, together with the resolutions approving the transfer and confirming the agreements made between the city and the lighting company After these had been carefully compared by the Trustees and the City Attorney they were approved and adopted and the chairman and clerk of the board were authorized to attest their execution. This practically clears the way for the installation of the new fire alarm system, and as soon as a few preliminary permits are obtained bids for the installation of the system will be called for.

Farewell to Father Harrington

Father J. J. Harrington, who will leave for San Francisco today to assume charge of his new duties as assistant pastor of St. Brigid's church was tendered a farewell reception by the ladies and gentlemens' Sodalities in Parochial hall Thursday evening. The gentlemens sodality had assembled for the annual election of officers, and there was a large gathering. After the election Father Harrington began his farewell address to the members and had hardly begun when the doors of the hall opened and in came the ladies of the parish with baskets laden with all the good things of the season. The hall was soon transformed into an attractive banquet room. Father Harrington was greatly surprised and for a while was unable to learn what it all meant. J. B. Kelly in a few well chosen words introduced the toastmaster, James T. O'Keefe, who lauded the good work done by Father Harrington during his four years as assistant pastor. While it was a disappointment to see him go yet it was a consolation to know that the worthy priest's zeal had been recognized in being given a substantial promotion. Father Lyons was the next speaker. He feelingly told of the loss the parish had sustained in the removal of his able assistant upon whose shoulders much work had been placed by him during the past four years. In eloquent terms he protrayed the ties existing between the priest and his people and what the severing of them meant. He paid a high tribute to the worth of Father Harrington. Mrs. J. J Downey delighted all with a solo. Miss Nellie Casey, prefect of the ladies Sodality, on behalf of the members, delivered a well timed address thanking the retiring priest for his labors and zealous endeavors on their behalf. J. E. Fitzgerald softly sang "Farewell." William Manniton, on be half of the "Raiders" spoke of his early acquaintance with Father Harrington in San Francisco. He had watched his career and was proud of him and predicted a successful career for him in the metropolis. Miss Grace Partee's solo was heartily applauded. J. J Downey, prefect of the gentlemens Sodality in a laudatory speech bristling with choice flowers of rhetoric, Presented Father Harrington, on behalf of the members a costly gold watch and chain suitably inscribed. Father Harrington was overcome with emotion and it was some minutes before he could respond. He delivered a happy address in which he heartily thanked his hearers for the many kind words said about him. He promised to never forget the kindness shown him during his four years in Menlo Park. He also paid an eloquent tribute to the pastor, Father Lyons, for his consideration of him at all times. The program was completed by a solo by Mrs. W. P. Glenn Among those present was Father Harrington's aged mother, who listened with tears of joy to the praises given her accomplished and devoted son. The young priest will long be remembered by the pople of Menlo Park who have learned to love and cherish him.

REPUBLICANS HOLD COUNTY CONVENTION

Endorse Taft Administration and Pledge United Support to Nominees of Party.

The Republican County Convention met at Halfmoon Bay Thursday pursuant to the call of the County Committee. The meeting was called xto order by Thos. Connelly and the notice regarding delegations and apportionments thereof was read by H. O. Heiner, chairman and secretary respectively of the County Committee All but seven delegates responded to the roll.

The first order of business being a temporary organization, John MacBain was nominated by Geo W.. Lovie for Chairman and with the greatest enthusiasm, Honest John was elected and escorted to the platform. W. J Duffy of San Mateo was then elected secretary. On motion of Lovie the Chair was instructed to name five members each on the following committees. Permanent organization and order of business credentials and platform. The chairman announced the appointments after which an adjournment was taken until 1:30 p. m.

Upon the call to order in the afternoon, C. N. Kirkbride, Chairman of the committee on permanent organization reported, his report naming the temporary officers as the officers of the convention and outlining the program. The report was unanimously adopted. The credential committee report was then adopted. By this action only those regularly elected were allowed to sit as members of the Convention, the report having declared against allowing proxies. Geo. W. Lovie of the platform committee then presented his report. The platform was as follows, and was adopted with great applause.

Whereas, the legislature of the state of California at its last session, in order that all the electors of the state might have a full and free opportunity to nominate candidates for the various offices to be filled throughout the state and the several counties and districts thereof, and a like opportunity to select delegates to conventions in each county, adopted a new primary law, and an election was held under such law on August 16th, 1910; and

Whereas, at such election candidates were nominated and delegates elected; and

Whereas, the delegates to this Republican convention were so elected after all the Republican voters of this county had been requested to hold caucuses to nominate candidates for delegates, and at which caucuses all voters had an opportunity to appear and be heard; and

Whereas, we believe that the delegates to this convention so nominated and elected well and truly represent the electors who chose them;

Now Therefore, we, the representatives of the Republican Party of San Mateo County, in convention assembled, do hereby adopt the following platform and resolutions, vix:

1. We endorse our honorable president, William H. Taft, as a most worthy and upright Republican and statesman and assure him of the continued confidence and support of the Republicans of this county;

2. We endorse the Republican administration of the affairs of this state under the wise leadership of Honorable James N. Gillett;

3. We endorse the course of action pursued in Congress by Honorable E. A. Hayes as being in the interest of all the people and no special class;

And Whereas, at such primary election five worthy Republicans were candidates for the nomination for governor of this state and the votes of the members of this convention were divided among the several candidates, but the result of such primary election was that Honorable Hiram W. Johnson received a large plurality of the votes cast for the office of governor;

Now Therefore, be it hereby resolved, that we heartily endorse Hiram W. Johnson as our candidate for governor; that we promise him our earnest support, and that from this day until the polls are closed on election day we all are, and will be, Johnson men, and

Whereas, at the general election held in 1906, every Republican candidate for a county office in this county was, by the solid, united Republican party, elected to office, and

Whereas, under the new primary law a full list of candidates for all of the county offices has been nominated, each candidate receiving a large majority or plurality of all the votes cast;

Now Therefore, be it further resolved, that as a progressive, united and harmonious party and convention, we hereby endorse each and all of the Republican candidates nominated at such primary, and promise each the hearty and solid support of this convention and the county committee to be selected by it; and

Whereas, we further believe that party solidarity is strongly aided by the faithful service of officers elected by said party, in strict accordance with the duties and obligations imposed upon them as public officials;

Now Therefore, Resolved, that this convention does claim and expect from each Republican candidate nominated at the primary the full and faithful performance, in accordance with law, of all official duties required of him, and having full confidence in our candidates we hereby extend to the people of our county the prophecy and assurance that the Republican administration of the affairs of this county during the next four years will be eminently satisfactory to them, and to the accomplishment of that end we invite and urge their support of all our candidates.

The convention as a whole decided on the number of members on the County Committee and a recess of ten minutes was taken to name the members from each township and to select the delegates to the State Convention. The result of the deliberations was as follows, County committee at large J. J. Bullock, 1st township, T. C. Connelly, Hugh Rogers; 2d , F. D. Lorton, O. P Hicks; 3rd, A. L. Lowe, J. MacBain; 4th, D. J. Lynch; 5th C. J Coburn Delegates to the State Convention, W. J. Martin, C. N. Kirkbride, C A Cavalli, A. S. Hatch and D. E Blackburn, at large H. C. Ross

The different aspirants for County offices were then called upon and addressed the convention. The speech of Henry Ward Brown was the best bit of oratory indulged in during the day and evoked much applause. Mr. Brown talked straight to the point and showed what a united front would do for the party..

Taken as a whole, the Republican convention at Halfmoon Bay was the most harmonious ever held in San Mateo county. There was no friction and no bitterness. Everything was done in the spirit or harmony and augurs well for the success of the party at the November election.

After the convention was declared adjourned the county committee met and organized by electing T. C. Connelly chairman and A. L. Lowe secretary

Under New Management.

C. E. Nathhorst, a gentleman who has had wide experience in the theatrical field, has purchased the Bell Theater, assuming control of the businesss Wednesday evening. Under the new management many improvements will be made in this popular place of entertainment, the first of these being the installation of nearly 200 opera chairs, thus adding materially to the comfort of patrons. As soon as the chairs are thoroughly in place the aisle will be carpeted, thus preventing the noise of late comers interfering with the enjoyment of the entertainments. Manager Nathhorst is also considering the addition of some new features to the programs now presented. While manager Mehrten since the opening of the new theater, had made it a popular place of entertainment, the Bell now promises to merit even a larger potronage. We bespeak for manager Nathhorst the hearty encouragement of the people of Redwood City in his efforts to afford an up to date amusement place.

Mrs Geo. H. Rice, Mrs Sarah Wentworth and Mrs. Martha Durham and Mrs. Lila Kirkpatrick left yesterday for a trip to Oregon. The latter will visit friends in Portland for some time while the other members of the party will journey to Washington to visit their sister, Mrs. Head, a former resident of this city. The party will remain a month or more in the north.

Passed the Assembly, March 15, A. D. 1909. Clio Lloyd, Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

This bill was received by the Governor this 19th day of March, A. D. 1909, at 11 o'clock A. M. E. C. Cooper, Private Secretary of the Governor.

CHAPTER 320. An act to provide for the issuance and sale of state bonds to create a fund for the improvement of San Francisco harbor by the construction by the board of state harbor commissioners of wharves, piers, state railroad, spurs, betterments, and appurtenances and necessary dredging and filling in connection therewith in the city and county of San Francisco; to create a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds; to define the duties of state officers in relation thereto; to make an appropriation of five thousand dollars for the expense of printing said bonds; and to provide for the submission of this act to a vote of the people.

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of providing a fund for the payment of the indebtedness hereby authorized to be incurred by the board of state harbor commissioners for the erection of wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs, betterments and appurtenances and necessary dredging and filling in connection therewith in the city and county of San Francisco, at a cost not to exceed nine million dollars (which said wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs, betterments and appurtenances and necessary dredging and filling in connection therewith the board of state harbor commissioners are hereby empowered to construct and do in the manner, authorized by law, and at a cost not to exceed said nine million dollars), the state treasurer shall, immediately after the issuance of the proclamation of the governor, provided for in section 10 hereof, prepare nine thousand suitable bonds of the State of California, in the denomination of one thousand dollars each. The whole issue of said bonds shall not exceed the sum of nine million dollars, and said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, from the date of issuance thereof, and both principal and interest shall be payable in gold coin of the present standard value, and they shall be payable at the office of the state treasurer, at the expiration of seventy-four years from their date, subject, however, to redemption by lot as in this act hereinafter provided. Said bonds shall bear date the second day of July, A. D. nineteen hundred and eleven, and shall be made payable on the second day of July, nineteen hundred and eighty-five. The interest accruing on such of said bonds as are sold, shall be due and payable at the office of the state treasurer on the second day of January, and on the second day of July, of each year after the sale of the same; provided, that the first payment of interest shall be made on the second day of July, nineteen hundred and twelve, on so many of said bonds as may have been theretofore sold. At the expiration of seventy-four years from the date of said bonds, all bonds sold shall cease to bear interest and likewise all bonds redeemed by lot shall cease to bear interest as in this act provided, and the said state treasurer shall call in, forthwith pay and cancel the same, out of the moneys in the second San Francisco seawall sinking fund provided for in this act, and, he shall on the first Monday of July, nineteen hundred and eighty-five, also cancel and destroy all bonds not theretofore sold. All bonds issued shall be signed by the governor, and countersigned by the controller, and shall be endorsed by the state treasurer and the said bonds shall be so signed, countersigned and endorsed by the officers who are in office on the second day of July, 1911, and each of said bonds shall have the seal of the state stamped thereon. The said bonds signed, countersigned and endorsed and sealed as herein provided when sold shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, though the sale thereof be made at a date or dates after the person signing, countersigning and endorsing, or any or either of them, shall have ceased to be the incumbents of such office or offices. Each bond shall contain a clause that it is subject to redemption by lot after the year nineteen hundred and fifty.

SEC. 2. Interest coupons shall be attached to each of said bonds, so that such coupons may be removed without injury to, or mutilation of the bond. Said coupons shall be consecutively numbered, and shall bear the lithographed signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the second day of July, 1911. But no interest on any of said bonds shall be paid for any time which may intervene between the date of any of said bonds and the issue and sale thereof to a purchaser, unless such accrued interest shall have been, by the purchaser of said bond, paid to the state at the time of such sale.

SEC. 3. The sum of five thusand dollars is hereby appropriated to pay the expense that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared. Said amount shall be paid out of the San Francisco harbor improvement fund on controller's warrants, duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 4. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be by the state treasurer sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in such parcels and numbers as said treasurer shall be directed by the governor of the state, under seal thereof, after a resolution requesting such sale shall have been adopted by the board of state harbor commissioners, and approved by either the governor of the state or mayor of the city and county of San Francisco, who shall only approve the same when in their judgment the actual harbor receipts, and those reasonably anticipated, will justify such sale of bonds and the consequent increased burden on harbor receipts; but said treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date; and he may, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select. Before offering any of said bonds for sale the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured or will mature before the date fixed for such sale. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds must be given by said treasurer by publication in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento, once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expenses and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each sale so advertised. The cost of such publication shall be paid out of the San Francisco harbor improvement fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds except such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the treasury, and must be by him kept in a separate fund to be known and designated as the "Second San Francisco Seawall Fund" and must be used exclusively for the construction of wharves, piers, seawall, state railroad, spurs, betterments and appurtenances and necessary dredging and filling in connection therewith on the water front of the city and county of

The amount that shall have been paid at the sale of said bonds as accrued interest on the bonds sold shall be, by the state treasurer, immediately after such sale, paid into the treasury of the state and placed in the "Second San Francisco Seawall Sinking Fund."

SEC. 5. For the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds a sinking fund, to be known and designated as the "Second San Francisco Seawall Sinking Fund" shall be, and the same is hereby created, as follows, to wit: The state treasurer, after the second day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, shall on the first day of each and every month thereafter, after the sale of said bonds, take from the San Francisco harbor improvement fund such sum as, multiplied by the time in months, the bonds then sold and outstanding have to run, will equal the principal of the bonds sold and outstanding at the time said treasurer shall so take said sum from said San Francisco harbor improvement fund, less the amount theretofore taken therefrom for said purpose; and he shall place the sum in the second San Francisco seawall sinking fund created by this act. Said state treasurer shall, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose, employ the moneys in said sinking fund in the purchase of bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities of the State of California, which said bonds shall be kept in a proper receptacle, appropriately labeled; but he must keep always on hand a sufficient amount of money in said sinking fund with which to pay the interest on such of the state bonds herein provided to be issued as may have theretofore been sold. And to provide means for the payment of interest on the bonds that may be sold and outstanding, said treasurer shall monthly take from the San Francisco harbor improvement fund, and pay into said seawall sinking fund, an amount equal to the monthly interest then due on the bonds then sold, delivered and outstanding. The board of state harbor commissioners are hereby authorized and directed by the collection of dockage, tolls, rents, wharfage and cranage to collect a sum of money sufficient for the purposes of this act, over and above the amount limited by section two thousand five hundred and twenty-six of the Political Code of the State of California. Between the first and tenth day of May, in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-one and between the first and tenth day of May of each year thereafter until the maturity of said bonds, the said treasurer shall, in the presence of the governor, proceed to draw by lot such an amount of bonds as shall be requisite to exhaust as nearly as may be the amount in said sinking fund at that time, and shall thereupon and before the tenth day of June following, give notice by public advertisement to be inserted twice a week for two weeks in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento, stating the number of bonds so drawn and that the principal of said bonds will be paid on presentation to the treasurer on or before the second day of July, following, and that from and after such last named date, all interest upon bonds thus drawn shall cease, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer as soon as said bonds so drawn by lot are surrendered to him and paid to cancel the same, and each year beginning with the year nineteen hundred and fifty-one, the said treasurer shall, in the manner aforesaid, proceed to draw by lot such an amount of bonds as shall be requisite to exhaust as nearly as may be the amount in said sinking fund, and proceed in the manner hereinabove stated. After the payment of all said bonds, the surplus or balance remaining in said sinking fund, if any there be, shall forthwith be paid into the San Francisco harbor improvement fund. At the time of the respective drawings by lot, as aforesaid, and also at the maturity of said state bonds, said treasurer shall sell the United States bonds or other bonds then in said sinking fund, at governing market rates, after advertising the sale thereof in the manner hereinbefore provided for the sale of bonds hereby authorized to be issued, and shall use the proceeds for the payment of such bonds as may be drawn by lot, and at the maturity of said bonds outstanding shall pay and redeem said matured outstanding bonds out of said moneys in said fund in extinguishment of said bonds on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 6. The state controller and the state treasurer shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay the interest of said bonds, when the same falls due, out of the sinking fund provided for in this act, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 8. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and ten, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing, and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

SEC. 9. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden in the month of November, nineteen hundred and ten, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon and at the end thereof, the words, "For the San Francisco Harbor Improvement Act of 1909," and immediately below said words "Against the San Francisco Harbor Improvement Act of 1909" and in brevier type shall be printed "This act provides for the improvement of San Francisco harbor and for the payment of all costs thereof out of the San Francisco Harbor Improvement Fund." CHAPTER 383. An act authorizing the construction, acquisition, maintenance and control of a system of state highways in the State of California; specifying the work, fixing the payments to be made by counties for moneys expended therein; providing for the issuance and sale of state bonds to create a fund for the construction and acquisition of such system; creating a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds; and providing for the submission of this act to a vote of the people.

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A system of state highways in and for the State of California shall be constructed and acquired as and in the manner provided by law by the department of engineering of said state at a cost not to exceed eighteen million dollars. For the purpose of providing for the payment of the cost of the construction or acquisition of said system of said highways, the State of California is hereby authorized to incur an indebtedness in the manner provided by this act, in the sum of eighteen million dollars.

Immediately after the issuance of the proclamation of the governor, as provided in section 11 of this act, the treasurer of the state shall prepare eighteen thousand suitable bonds of the State of California in the denomination of one thousand dollars each, to be numbered from 1 to 18,000 inclusive, and to bear the date of the third day of July, 1911, which said issue of bonds shall not exceed the sum of eighteen million dollars and they shall bear interest at the rate of four per cent per annum from the date of issuance thereof. The said bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable, in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of value at the office of the treasurer of said state at the times and in the manner following, to wit: The first four hundred of said bonds shall be due and payable on the third day of July, 1917, and four hundred of said bonds in consecutive numerical order shall be due and payable on the third day of July, in each and every year thereafter until and including the third day of July, 1961. The interest accruing on all of said bonds that shall be sold shall be payable at the office of the treasurer of the state on the third day of January and the third day of July of each and every year after the sale of the same. The interest on all bonds issued and sold shall cease on the day of the maturity of the bonds so issued and sold shall on the day of their maturity be paid as herein provided and canceled by the treasurer of said state. All bonds remaining unsold shall, at the date of the maturity thereof be by the treasurer of said state canceled and destroyed. All bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be signed by the governor of this state, countersigned by the state controller and endorsed by the state treasurer, and the said bonds shall be so signed, countersigned and endorsed by the officers who are in office on the third day of July, 1911, and each of said bonds shall have the great seal of the State of California thereon affixed. The said bonds signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed as herein provided, when sold, shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, though the said bonds be made at a date or dates later than the person so signing, countersigning and endorsing, or either of them, shall have ceased to be the incumbents of said office or offices.

SEC. 2. Appended to each of said bonds there shall be interest coupons so attached that the same may be detached without injury to or mutilation of said bond. The said coupons shall be consecutively numbered and shall bear the lithographed signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the third day of July, 1911. No interest shall be paid on any of said bonds for such time as may intervene between the date of said bond and the day of sale thereof, unless such accrued interest shall have been, by the purchaser of said bond, paid to the state at the time of such sale.

SEC. 3. There shall be provided in the general appropriation bill sufficient money to defray all expenses that shall be incurred by the state treasurer in the preparation of said bonds and in the advertising of the sale thereof, as in this act provided.

SEC. 4. When the bonds authorized by this act to be issued shall have been signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed as in section one provided, the state treasurer shall sell the same in such parcels and numbers as the governor of the state shall direct, to the highest bidder for cash. The governor of the state shall issue to the state treasurer such direction immediately after being requested so to do, through and by a resolution duly adopted and passed by a majority vote of the advisory board of the department of engineering. Said resolution shall specify the amount of money which, in the judgment of said advisory board shall be required at such time and the governor of the state shall direct the state treasurer to sell such number of said bonds as may be required to raise said amount of money and that said bonds shall be sold in consecutive numerical order commencing with the first four hundred thereof. The state treasurer shall not accept any bid which is less than the par value of the bond plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date. The state treasurer may at the time and place fixed by him for said sale continue such sale as to the whole or any part of the bonds offered to such time and place as he may at the time of such continuance designate. Before offering any of said bonds for sale, the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured or will mature before the date fixed for such sale. The state treasurer shall give notice of the time and place of sale by publication in two newspapers published in the city and county of San Francisco and in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland, and in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles and in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento once a week for four weeks next preceding the date fixed for such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expenses and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised.

There is hereby created in and for the state treasury a fund to be known and designated as the "State Highway Fund," and immediately after such sale of bonds the treasurer of the state shall pay into the state treasury and cause to be placed in said state highway fund the total amount received for said bonds, except such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon. The amount that shall have been paid at such sale as accrued interest on the bonds sold shall be by the treasurer of the state, immediately after such sale, paid into the treasury of the state and placed in the interest and sinking fund.

The moneys placed in the state highway fund, pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be used exclusively for the acquisition of rights of way for and the acquisition and construction of said system of state highways. The route or routes of said state highways shall be selected by the department of engineering, and said route shall be so selected and said highways so laid out and constructed or acquired as to constitute a continuous and connected state highway system running north and south through the state traversing the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys and along the Pacific coast by the most direct and practicable routes, connecting the county seats of the several counties through which it passes and joining the centers of population, together with such branch roads as may be necessary to connect therewith the several county seats lying east and west of such state highway.

Moneys shall be drawn from said state highway fund for the purposes of this act upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands made by the department of engineering and audited by the state board of examiners.

SEC. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury such sum annually as will be necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds, issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act, as said principal and interest becomes due and payable.

There shall be collected annually in the same manner and at the same time as other state revenue is collected such a sum, in addition to the ordinary revenue of the state as shall be required to pay the principal and interest on said bonds as herein provided, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers charged by law with any duty in regard to the collection of state revenue, to do and perform each and every act which shall be necessary to collect such additional sum.

The treasurer of the state shall, on the first day of January, 1912, and on the first day of each and every first day of each January thereafter transfer from the general fund of the state treasury to the interest and sinking fund such an amount of the money by this act appropriated as shall be required to pay the interest on the bonds theretofore sold, until the interest on all of said bonds so sold shall have been paid or shall have become due in accordance with the provisions of this act.

There is hereby created in the state treasury a fund to be known and designated as the "State Highway and Sinking Fund." The treasurer of the state shall on the first day of July of the year 1911, and on the first day of July, of each and every year thereafter in which a parcel of the bonds sold pursuant to the provisions of this act shall become due, transfer from the general fund in the state treasury to the said state highway sinking fund, such an amount of the moneys appropriated by this act as may be required to pay the principal of the bonds so becoming due and payable in such years.

SEC. 6. The principal of all of said bonds sold shall be paid at the time the same becomes due, from the state highway sinking fund, and the interest on all bonds sold shall be paid at the time said interest becomes due, from the interest and sinking fund. Both principal and interest shall be so paid upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands audited by the state board of examiners, and the faith of the State of California is hereby pledged for the payment of the principal of said bonds so sold, and the interest accruing thereon.

SEC. 7. The state controller and state treasurer shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act and they shall transmit to the governor in triplicate an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder with an annual report in triplicate, one copy of which to be by the governor, laid before each house of the legislature biennially. All books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act, shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature or a joint committee of both or any citizen of the state.

SEC. 8. The highway constructed or acquired under the provisions of this act shall be permanent in character and be finished with oil or macadam or a combination of both, or of such other material as in the judgment of the said department of engineering shall be most suitable and best adapted to the particular locality traversed. The state department of engineering, in the name of the people of the State of California, may purchase, receive by donation or dedication, or lease any right of way, rock quarry or land necessary or proper for the construction, use or maintenance of said state highway and shall proceed, if necessary, to condemn under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to such proceedings any necessary or proper right of way, rock quarry or land. The department of engineering shall have full power and authority to purchase all supplies, materials, machinery and to do all other things necessary or proper in the construction and maintenance of said state highway. With the exception of those public highways which have been permanently adopted as county or state permanent road division bond issues within three years prior to the adoption of this act; all public highways within this state lying within the right of way of said state highway as determined and adopted by the department of engineering shall be and the same shall become a part of the right of way of said state highway, without compensation being paid therefor; provided nothing herein contained shall require the advertising for bids for any way along or on said right of way, prior to the completion or acquisition of the permanent improvements contemplated by this act. Whenever any money paid into the state treasury under the provisions of this act, shall be expended in any county in this state, such county must pay into the state treasury such sum each year as shall equal the interest, at the rate of four per cent per annum, upon the entire sum of money expended within such county in the construction of said state highway, less such portion of said amount expended as the bonds matured under the provisions of this act, shall bear to the total number of bonds sold and outstanding. All highways constructed or acquired under the provisions of this act shall be permanently maintained and controlled by the State of California.

SEC. 9. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the thirty-first day of December, 1910, as to all its provisions except those relating to, and necessary for, its submission to the people and for returning, canvassing and proclaiming the votes, and to such accepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

SEC. 10. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election to be holden in the month of November, 1910, A. D., and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon, and at the end thereof, the words "For the state highway act"; and in a separate line, under the same, the words "Against the state highway act." Opposite said lines there shall be left spaces in which the voters may make or stamp a cross to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the state highway act," and all those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the state highway act." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

SEC. 11. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers, and if it appears that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election, as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

SEC. 12. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, A. D. nineteen hundred and ten; the costs of publication shall be paid out of the San Francisco harbor improvement fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 13. This act may be known and cited as the "State Highway Act."
